

Become a global leader for sustainability

www.lead-europe.org

LEAD is the world's largest international non-profit organisation focused on leadership for sustainable development. Building on 20 years of experience, our world-class training programme equips emerging leaders with skills and knowledge for better decision making.

What does the Fellowship Programme look like?

LEAD Programmes are learner-centred, participatory, experiential, fun and designed to fit around your commitments. Our approach includes:

- Self-assessment based on leadership competencies
- Case studies, team challenges, simulations, role plays
- Peer-to-peer learning and coaching
- Flexible e-learning courses
- Team projects and individual reflection

“At a transitional point in my career the LEAD programme allowed me to combine my business expertise, sustainability knowledge, environmental interests and leadership abilities.”

The 2012 Learning Journey

E-learning: 78 hours of study in your own time. Choose from our wide range of facilitated and self-study learning courses, which you can access for up to 2 years.

Leadership Challenges: local team challenges in London, Bucharest, Sofia and Brussels. Choose your challenge and attend a 3.5 day event in October 2012.

Pan-European Learning: a 3.5 day event in London in May 2013 that brings together participants from across Europe.

LEAD gives you the opportunity to:

- Realise your true leadership potential
- Enhance your knowledge of sustainability challenges
- Apply tools and techniques for better decision making
- Create change through collaboration with a global network
- Implement your vision of a sustainable future
